

COUNCIL OF 100

I AM A REPUBLICAN BECAUSE . . .

I BELIEVE . . .

That the proper function of government is to do for the people those things that have to be done, but cannot be done, or cannot be done as well, by individuals, and the most effective government is government closest to the people.

I BELIEVE . . .

That good government is based upon the individual and that each person's ability, dignity, freedom, and responsibility must be honored and recognized.

I BELIEVE . . .

That free enterprise and the encouragement of individual initiative and incentive have given this nation an economic system second to none.

I BELIEVE . . .

That sound money management should be our goal.

I BELIEVE . . .

In equal rights, equal justice and equal opportunity for all, regardless of race, creed, age, sex or national origin.

I BELIEVE . . .

We must retain those principles of the past worth retaining, yet always be receptive to new ideas with an outlook broad enough to accommodate thoughtful change and varying points of view.

I BELIEVE . . .

That Americans value and should preserve their feeling of national strength and pride, and at the same time share with people everywhere a desire for peace and freedom and the extension of human rights throughout the world.

FINALLY . . . I BELIEVE . . .

That the Republican Party is the best vehicle for translating these ideals into positive and successful principles of government.

The Republican Philosophy

We Believe:

That the right of the individual to achieve the best that is within him, as long as he respects the rights of others, is the source of our nation's strength.

That government exists to protect the freedom of opportunity in which each individual's creative ability can flourish.

That government activities should be limited to those things which people cannot do at all, or cannot do so well for themselves.

That the most effective government is government closest to the people.

That those who cannot provide for themselves should be assisted by both government and society, but that every effort should be made to help them become self-supporting, productive citizens with pride in their independence.

That equal rights, equal justice and equal opportunity belong to all, regardless of race, creed, age, sex or national origin.

That the preservation of our nation and the security of our citizens depends upon the Constitution, the laws and the courts, and that respect for them is the responsibility of every individual.

That government is accountable for maintaining sound money and a responsible economy. Individual rights, liberties and properties are continually eroded when citizens are oppressed by excessive taxation, inflation, government waste and over-regulation.

That government is responsible for national defense and that only a strong America can

COUNCIL OF 100 OBJECTIVES

The Council of 100's primary objective is to help provide financial support for the Nassau County Republican Party in the accomplishment of its mission.

The dues for membership are $100 per year. As a member of the Council of 100, you are a member of the Republican Party of Nassau County's most prestigious committee. You will receive special invitations to major party activities and functions.
